

STATUS OF PEACE PROCESS

The Government has shown its willingness to enter into dialogue with any group, which is willing to abjure the path of violence and place its demand within the framework of the Constitution of India. Pursuant to the above policy of the Government, a number of outfits have come for talks with the Government for resolution to their grievances and a number of cadres of insurgents have surrendered with weapons. The State-wise details of peace process with the insurgent groups of North East are as under :-

Assam

- ULFA (United Liberation Front of Assam) talks are continuing. Last meeting was held on 24.11.2015. SoO is valid from 03.09.2011 and is continuing indefinitely.
- NDFB(P) [National Democratic Front of Boroland (progressive)] signed the SoO agreement first on 01.06.2005 and is valid upto 30.06.2017.
- NDFB (RD) [National Democratic Front of Boroland (Ranjan Daimairi)] a splinter group of NDFB signed SoO agreement on 29.11.2013. SoO is valid upto 30.06.2018.
- Karbi Longri NC Hills Liberation Front (KLNLFF) is presently under SoO agreement with the Government of Assam since 11.02.2010 and SoO agreement is valid upto 30.04.2018.
- 9 militant outfits including five Adivasi outfits surrendered on 24.01.2012.

Meghalaya

- Memorandum of Settlement (MoS) between the Govt. of India, the State Govt. of Meghalaya and the ANVC (Achik National Volunteer Council) and ANVC/B was signed on 24.09.2014. The ANVC dissolved on 15.12.2014.

Manipur

- A total of 23 UG outfits under two conglomerates (United Progressive Front [UPF] -8 and Kuki National Organisation [KNO] -15) are currently under Suspension of Operation with the Government. SoO agreement with KNO and UPF exist since August, 2008 and is valid upto 31.8.2018. Political dialogue with these groups commenced in June, 2016.

Nagaland

- Ceasefire agreements signed with NSCN(NK)[National Socialist Council of Nagaland (Neopao Konyak -Kitovi)] and NSCN(Reformation) has been extended upto 27.04.2018. NSCN(Isak-Muivah) have signed Ceasefire Agreement for an indefinite period. A framework agreement signed with NSCN/IM on 03.08.2015.

Tripura

- On 17.12.2004, an MoU was signed with NLFT (NB) [National Liberation Front of Tripura(Nayan Basi)] and a Socio-Economic package of Rs. 64.63 crore was given for tribal Welfare, development, rehabilitation of old groups and rehabilitation process has been completed.
