Power to remove difficulties.

11. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by order, make such provisions or give such directions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the removal of the difficulty:

Provided that no such power shall be exercised after the expiry of a period of two years from the commencement of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Manipur is one of the small hill States in the North-Eastern region of India. Manipur has a geographical area of 22,327 sq km which constitutes 0.7% of the total land surface of India. 90% of the total geographical area of the State, i.e., 20,089 sq km is covered by hills and the remaining area is a small valley covering only 2,238 sq km. According to 2011 Census, the population of the State is 28.56 lakhs approximately. The density of population of Manipur as per 2011 Census was 128 per sq km as against 103 per sq km in 2001 Census. The population growth rate of Manipur is found to be higher than that of India.

Before the merger of Manipur to India on 15-10-1949, the entry into Manipur was regulated by imposition of a permit system. That permit system was abolished w.e.f. 18-11-1950 by a notification issued by the then Chief Commissioner of Manipur. Since then, there is no restriction on the entry by the citizens of India. The increase in the population has caused a panic in the mind of the people of Manipur. Of late, a mass movement by the people of Manipur arose demanding to enact a law similar to the earlier permit system so that by imposition of such a permit system, the fear of the people of Manipur of losing their existence can be done away with a reasonable restriction in the influx of Non-Manipur people. Further, the Non-Manipur people who intend to stay in the State as tenants need to be regulated with certain reasonable restrictions.

It has become therefore, expedient to enact a law to maintain tranquility and public order in the interest of general public by registering the Non-Manipur people and the owners who provide accommodation to the tenants.

The Bill proposes to establish a Directorate for effective supervision to the implementation of the issue of Pass to the Non-Manipur people and issue of receipts to the owners hosting the tenants in the State of Manipur.

Hence the Bill.
