

Nine Point Agreement between the CPN-UML and UCPN (Maoist)

1. To take initiatives to form a national consensus government with the objective of creating favorable environment to implement the constitution and for socio-economic transformation. To carry out the tasks of formulating necessary structural and policy works for implementing the constitution.
2. To discuss and resolve the issues including on federal system raised by Madhes-based and some other political parties through political agreement.
3. To initiate amendment and other procedures within 15 days with a time-bound plan on transitional justice as per the spirit of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement.
4. To provide reparations, as per the decisions taken by previous governments, to the family members of martyrs and those who were made to disappear.
5. To register the ownership of the lands that were transacted on the basis of household documents during the conflict period.
6. To make proper arrangements for medical treatment, protection and livelihoods of those who sustained injuries during the conflict period and people's movement. To make necessary increment on the arrangements made for those injured who have already been categorized.
7. To immediately initiate the process to withdraw or give clemency on insurgency-era cases and other politically-motivated cases filed on various occasions.
8. To hold regular dialogues and forge consensus among top leaders of political parties while making political or administrative appointments and before taking any important decisions at government-level. To immediately implement the past agreements.
9. To expedite the post-quake reconstruction work. To launch national campaign to mobilize volunteers for reconstruction work.

SOURCE: Republica (<http://myrepublica.com/feature-article/story/41802/oli-dahal-sign-9-pt-deal.html>)